

A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTANEA VOLUMES

Thomas M. McCoog SJ

The Collectanea volumes used to be kept at Stonyhurst College, but they are now stored in the Jesuits in Britain Archives.

Collectanea Volumes

Collectanea A: we know of it from references in other codices. The edition apparently was broken up and certain items are among the Anglia manuscripts.

Collectanea B: a number of papers, letters, &c. of the Persecution, &c, bound up together and signed B.

Collectanea C: broken up at the Suppression but re-assembled at Stonyhurst in the 19th century. Tesimond and Gerard's accounts of the Gunpowder Plot.

Collectanea D: lost or not identified.

Collectanea E: Oscott College, perhaps part of Dr John Kirk's legacy. Kirk was the last student admitted to the VEC before the Suppression.

Collectanea F: English College, Rome.

Collectanea G: may have been broken up and lost; seems to have contained many documents in Spanish. Some documents are among the Anglia papers.

Collectanea M: only one part of three remains.

Collectanea N: one document that was originally in N can now be found in the Belgian archives.

Collectanea P: two parts – Grene called them “my Persons” and “my Garnet.” Transcripts and summaries of letters by each.
